

I think its an outrage the Sinclair Broadcasting wants to use the public airwaves in such a partisan manner by airing an anti Kerry documentary so close to the election. This is an example of the problems that will occur if there is any further media consolidation and should not be allowed without equal time for a pro Kerry story. Thank you
Joseph Napolitano